Re: FOIA Control No. 2026-000235

Dear Mr. Zhang,

By this letter, we provide to you a copy of a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests, FOIA Control No. 2026-000235, and an opportunity to respond pursuant to section 0.461(d)(3) of the Commission's rules.[1] As explained below, your response is due on December 29, 2025.

On December 15, 2025, Mr. Reese Ricci Armstrong filed the above-referenced FOIA request with the Commission. In the FOIA request, Mr. Armstrong requests the Block Diagram, Schematics, Parts List and Operational Descriptions for FCC ID 22-5120W.[2] We were unable to locate a valid FCC ID number associated with that information and sent a request for clarification[3] to Mr. Armstrong. Mr. Armstrong then clarified in his reply that the FCC ID No. associated with his request is FCC ID No.2BG2B-TS120W.[4]

On August 7, 2024, DongGuan RuiHeng Electronic Technology CO., LTD (DongGuan) submitted in the Commission's Equipment Authorization System (EAS) a request for confidential treatment of the above-referenced records associated with FCC ID No. 2BG2B-TS120W.

Section 0.461(d)(3) of the Commission's rules provides that if a FOIA request seeks records that may contain confidential commercial information submitted to the Commission by a third party,[5] one copy of the request will be provided by the custodian of the records to the third party who originally submitted the materials to the Commission. DongGuan is hereby provided with a copy of the FOIA request. If DongGuan has any objection to release of the requested documents, it shall submit a detailed written statement within 10 calendar days of the date of this letter, i.e., December 29, 2025, referencing both FOIA Control No. 2026-000235, and specifying all grounds for withholding any portion of the [4] See email from Reese Ricci Armstrong to David Duarte, Spectrum Allocations Analyst, FCC (Dec. 15, 2025, 16:46 EST).

[5] These may consist of records not open to routine public inspection under section 0.457(d), section 0.459, or another Commission rule or order; records for which a request for confidentiality is pending pursuant to section 0.459; or records which the custodian has reason to believe may contain confidential commercial information.

information requested. DongGuan shall serve a copy of its response on Mr. Armstrong, who shall then have 10 calendar days within which to submit a written reply. Mr. Armstrong shall serve any such reply on DongGuan. In the event that DongGuan fails to respond within the time specified, DongGuan will be considered to have no objection to disclosure of the information.

DongGuan and Mr. Armstrong shall direct their responses to David Duarte, Spectrum Allocations Analyst, Policy and Rules Division, Office of Engineering and Technology, Federal Communications Commission, 45 L Street, NE, Washington, DC 20554 and shall also transmit a copy of the response via email to david.duarte@fcc.gov.

If you have any questions, please contact our office at (202) 418-2470.

Sincerely,

Andrew C. Hendrickson
Chief
Office of Engineering and Technology
